

Pre fab Best Man Speech (fill in appropriate name)

The trouble with being the best man at a wedding is that you never get to prove it.

What can you say about a man who came from humble beginnings and is now quickly rising to the very top of his profession based solely on intelligence, grit and the willpower to push on where others might fail? A man who is beginning to distinguish himself amongst his peers and where none can say a bad word against him? Well, that's enough about the best man. I'm here to talk about _____.

I can honestly say that in all the years I've known him, no one has ever questioned _____'s intelligence. In fact, I've never heard anyone even mention it.

_____ 's very classy. When we had an evening of music and drink in his house recently, I asked whether he had any Rachmaninoff. Gary replied he didn't have any vodka, only beer.

I tell the people that on a night of recent revelry I asked the groom what he wanted to get from his marriage. He said "Well, I want to be a model husband. I want to be a model citizen.

And I want to be a model lover!" Being a naive chap I looked up "model" in the dictionary. It said "A small miniature replica of the real thing!"

To _____ and _____, may all their ups and downs be between the sheets.

Here's to _____ a helluva pal, every girls guy and every guys gal.

He's a prince, he's a topper, he's the King of the dance.
And he frightens the horses when he takes down his pants.
